DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mark Watson on 01/18/2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. Claim 31 (New) A handheld computing device comprising:
An information display; and a calendar to be displayed on the information display, wherein an image representing ~~characteristic environmental conditions~~ a percentage of maximum daylight for a location at a selected time is associated with a calendar entry to be displayed on the information display, wherein the brightness of the information display is varied to correspond to the percentage of maximum daylight associated with two or more times for the calendar entry.
2. Cancel claims 32, 33, 34, 36, and 37.
3. Claim 35 Line 1, delete "34" and replace with – 31--.
4. Claim 38 (New) A method comprising:

Art Unit: 2174

determining a characteristic environmental condition for a location at a selected time;

associating the characteristic environmental condition with a calendar entry;
associating the characteristic environmental condition with an image; and displaying the image of the characteristic environmental condition on an information display[.]; and displaying a calendar on the information display, wherein the brightness of the information display is varied to correspond to the percentage of the maximum daylight associated with two or more times for the calendar entry, for a location.

5. Claim 46 (New) A computer readable medium containing executable computer program instructions, which when executed by a data processing system, cause the data processing system to perform a method to display a variable on an information display, comprising:

determining a characteristic environmental condition for a location at a selected time;

associating the characteristic environmental condition with a calendar entry;
associating the characteristic environmental condition with an image; and

displaying the image of the characteristic environmental condition on an information display[.]; and

displaying a calendar on the information display, wherein the brightness of the information display is varied to correspond to the percentage of the maximum daylight associated with two or more times for the calendar entry, for a location.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Prior art does not teach displaying a calendar on the information display, wherein the brightness of the information display is varied to correspond to the percentage of the maximum daylight associated with two or more times for the calendar entry, for a location.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
